The GGM are proud to announce the new ggmstudios.com website

Finally it has come, the new, long awaited, GGM website is here, online.

The first thing you will notice is the improved look and the new nice guestbook. But also, you will find many news about TOTO and more and more new items in our museum. As you know GGM are always in a quest for new and cutie things, and we encourage our visitors to cooperate with us, if you have something that we don't have, we'll be grateful and, of course, we won't miss to notice your name if it's your wish to do so.
